

RGBD-Dog Data Agreement form

Agreement between individual party and University of Bath

Thank you for using the RGBD-Dog dataset (<https://github.com/CAMERA-Bath/RGBD-Dog>)

In order to be given access, you must first agree to the following terms of use (see below), sign the form, and return to Sinéad Kearney, Department of Computer Science, University of Bath, BA2 7AY, UK - by post, or print a copy, sign, and return electronically to sk2007@bath.ac.uk.

By signing and returning the form, you are agreeing the following:

- The data cannot be redistributed to a third party but can be used within the organisation.
- The data can only be used for academic research but cannot be used for commercial use or resold to another party.
- Images from the data set may be shown in academic research papers. However, images cannot be used for commercial or media purposes.
- The data can only be used with full reference to the paper:

S. Kearney, W. Li, M. Parsons, K. In. Kim, D. Cosker, 'RGBD-Dog: Predicting Canine Pose from RGBD Sensors', IEEE Conference on Computer Vision and Pattern Recognition (CVPR), 2020

- The form must also be signed by a permanent member of staff at your organisation, and not e.g. a PhD student or research associate.
